

OUR PRIVACY POLICY STATEMENT 2021

We are committed to protecting the privacy of your personal information.

Overview

The Iron Barn is committed to protecting the privacy of your personal information. Personal information is collected, used, maintained, and disclosed in compliance with the principles of our Privacy Statement, the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA), and other applicable federal and provincial privacy legislation. Your information, whether public or private, will not be sold, exchanged, transferred, or given to any other company for any reason whatsoever, without your consent, other than for the express purpose of delivering the purchased product or service requested. The email address you provide for order processing, may be used to send you information and updates pertaining to your order. By using our site, you consent to our online privacy policy.

Online Orders & Payments

PayPal is our online service provider. When you make an online payment, they ask for personal information including your name; e-mail and mailing addresses; telephone number; credit card number, type, and expiration date. They use this information only for matters related to your order. With paypal we do not see your credit card information. For custom design or shipping or curbside pickup, we will maintain your credit card information only for a period reasonably necessary to ensure payment has been received, then it is destroyed.

Online Groups, Networks, and Blogs

The Iron Barn offers links to many different online groups. These range from simple blogs or groups to more sophisticated networks like Facebook, Instagram, etc. These services are not controlled or maintained by The Iron Barn, and we cannot guarantee the privacy or security of any information you provide to these services. We recommend you review the privacy policy for each service before disclosing personal or sensitive information.

Analytics

The Iron Barn collects and uses the information contained within an automatically generated log of all traffic on our website and other tracking codes are included in all pages on our websites for use with Google Analytics. The information collected includes IP addresses, browser types, device type, plug-ins available, pages viewed, city/province/country of the visitor, network used, and cookie information. We use this information in an aggregate form to calculate overall site traffic patterns, to analyze user trends, and to administer the website. Individual traffic patterns will not be disclosed to any third party except as required by law.

The Iron Barn may from time to time change this Privacy Statement as new services are added or old ones changed. Please review this statement regularly for updates.